DIRT TO GLASS

As a phrase, 'dirt to bottle' may lack the romance of typical 'wine-speak', but it has a compelling purpose to it – to tell the story of a particular wine, and the passage that it has taken from the vine to the bottle.

We hope you enjoy your journey with our wines.

RESERVE SHIRAZ VIOGNIER

VINTAGE

2014

REGION

Barossa Valley

TASTING NOTE

Shiraz-Viognier has evolved a great deal since it started appearing in earnest in Australia from around 2002. Originally an idea born out of good husbandry – why throw away the white, pressed skins when they can be added to the red ferment? – Viognier lends a perfumed elegance to the wine that goes beyond the nose alone, but stops short of dominating the palate. Delicious, with a hint of white pepper and musk.

FLAVOUR MATCH

There is an exotic touch to this blend that makes it a great choice for a celebration - a Christmas Turkey; a glazed ham or even a haunch of venison. We think a goose, complete with lemon, thyme and a tray-full of roasted, garlic cloves is a pretty good option!!
